My worst wreck is when it was snowing and I was jumping off my bike and was letting it roll and I would run and go grab it and jump back on it but this one time I went to go grab it and I slipped and the handle bar went in to my chest and these people were watching me in their house so they came out to see if I was okay and I said ya and then they brought me a mirror and they showed me my chest and then I went to the hospital and I got 4 stitches and they gave me two shots and then after that I was scared to ride my bike again and the guy stitched it up wrong ~~to up~~ so now I have a big scar and now I don't try that stuff no more but I do jump my bike know that's all I do with my bike.
